INT. SECRET LAB ROOM

In a dark room, sparks fly up as a hole is being cut into the floor. A small group of masked birds and lizards crawl up out of the floor and silently into the shadows.

INT. SECRET LAB

Scientists are running tests on lizards of all kinds, young, old, tall, short, skinny, fat. There are lizards in tubes around the walls. In the centre of all the tests is an egg inside of its own chamber, guarded by 2 big Elite Bird Secret Police soldiers.

INT. SECRET LAB HALLWAY

Silently moving thru the dark hallway, the rebels signal to each other to split up.

One by one, they start assassinating the scientists and guards all over the facility.

INT. SECRET LAB

EBSP GUARD

Hawk 3 to Hawk 1, theres been a disturbance on the sensors in the hallway, check it out.

No response

EBSP GUARD (CONT'D)

Hawk 1 do you copy?

The guard glances over at his partner, gripping their guns a tighter, they nod.

INT. SECRET LAB HALLWAY

EBSP GUARD (V.O) (CONT'D)

Hawk 1, are you there, do you copy??

Theres no response because Hawk 1 is already dead, taken out by the masked gang, along with all the scientists in that laboratory. A room which was once pristine white is covered red with blood. The lizards being tested on are freed and gathered together shyly in the corner.

INT. SECRET LAB HALLWAY

EBSP GUARD
Somethings not right.

Just as they walk out the room, a bird runs by and slices Hawk 3's throat. Grabs his gun and blasts Hawk 2 away.

The masked assailants enter the lab and smash all the tanks, freeing more lizards and destroying their research.

One of the masked assailants smashes their way into the egg containment chamber and emerges with it. With the prize in hand they make their way back to the hole they created when they came in.

As they swiftly move thru the hallways, a light shines thru the slated windows and a group of Ebsp show up and start shooting at the masked group

EBSP LEADER (V.O.)
Careful for the egg, thats a red lvl 5 object. I repeat, red lvl 5 object, do not damage it or allow it to leave the laboratory.

EBSP GUARD
Copy that

The guard puts his gun away and takes out his nightstick and beats the shit out of a couple of the masked assailants

MASKED ASSAILANT
UHFF! here, take it! Get out of here!

The one who had the egg was the one who just got beaten two ways to tomorrow by the nightstick. Passing off the egg to one of the masked birds so they can make off thru the hallway to the room.

Camera looks at the hallway from the perspective of behind the hole in the floor, we see the bird running towards it with the egg. His partners being beaten and slain.

He slides towards the hole and emerges outside of it.

EXT. SECRET LAB

He spreads his wings and starts to fly away with the egg.

The helicopter is circling the outside of the lab, and shines it's spotlight on him.

INT. HELICOPTER

Inside the helicopter is a sharpshooter, looking down his sights he had the bird in view.

EBSP SHARPSHOOTER
I have a clear shot

EBSP LEADER (V.O)
Take it

Shots ring out from the sniper rifle, striking the bird right in the chest. She stumbles out of the air and falls into the forest below

EBSP SHARPSHOOTER
Target neutralized, package is on the forest floor. All units, search the zone near the station and retrieve the egg.
